For Immediate Release
August 13, 2013

Hailing all the way from Scotland, Gaelic band, Mànran, makes their USA debut at River Rhythms tomorrow, August 14th!

Milwaukee, WI— River Rhythms, downtown's fastest growing music festival, continues this week with the Gaelic and English blend of Scottish band, Mànran! The free concert series takes place from 6:30-9 p.m. every Wednesday until August 28th in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third St. between State and Kilbourn.

Forming in 2010, Mànran has been taking the international music scene by storm. Mànran brings a unique and contemporary perspective on traditional Gaelic and English music, creating an infectious and lively sound using the powerful combination of the accordion, fiddle, flute, highland and uilleann pipes.

With a special performance at the 2012 London Olympics, the successful release of their first album and their second underway, Mànran has established themselves as one of the most exciting up and coming international folk bands. They're sure to bring vitality and originality to the River Rhythms stage with a performance you do not want to miss!

Also, don't miss out on the chance to see a live performance from Kinsella Academy of Irish Dance, one of Milwaukee's premier Irish dance schools, at intermission of the concert.

Miller products, wine and soda will be available at the Westown Beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food from Streetza Pizza, FiveStar Nacho, Cousin's Subs, Roll MKE and Laura's Gourmet Popcorn.

The River Rhythms line-up is still jam packed with some great acts, including Five Card Studs and The Toys. Find the 2013 River Rhythms line-up here.
