River Rhythms is excited to welcome Altered Five, tomorrow, August 27th!

Milwaukee, WI— River Rhythms, downtown’s fastest growing music festival, continues this week with Milwaukee crowd favorite, Altered Five, tomorrow, August 27th. The free concert series takes place from 6:30-9 p.m. in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third St. between State and Kilbourn.

Proclaimed “a staple of the Midwest’s band scene” and “a festival favorite”, Altered Five’s delectable brew of blues and soul has a wide audience taking notice. The group also puts its stamp on three covers: a driving, bluesified take on the early Marvin Gaye hit “Ain’t That Peculiar”; a revved-up reading of Buddy Guy’s 1961 Chess recording “Watch Yourself”; and the cool, sassy groove of another Motown original, “You’ve Got to Earn It.”

Miller products, a new signature Tuaca cocktail, wine and soda will be available at the Westtown Beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food from Eats & Treats Food Truck, Cousins Subs, Tres Flores Funnel Cakes and Laura’s Gourmet Popcorn.

Be sure to save the date for the added rain date concert, next Wednesday Sept. 3rd featuring Sam Llanas (formerly of the BoDeans).
