Natty Nation makes their River Rhythms debut tomorrow, Wednesday June 25th!

Milwaukee, WI— River Rhythms, downtown's fastest growing music festival, kicks off this week after 2 weeks of rain cancellations, with Milwaukee's reggae band, Natty Nation. The free concert series takes place from 6:30-9 p.m. every Wednesday until August 27th in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third St. between State and Kilbourn.

Hard Roots Rock Reggae & Dub—this is the unique blend of music that is Natty Nation. Since 1995 Natty Nation has kept the positive messages of their unique indigenous Wisconsin reggae beats throbbing through the heartland. Their messages of peace, love, community, and spreading positive vibrations have been ringing out since Natty's inception.

Join us for some special samples from Sea Cuisine! With a ton of different recipes collected from around the world, Sea Cuisine® has elevated the art of the fish taco from shack to chic. To upgrade your taco night visit the Sea Cuisine Taco Bar® at River Rhythms, one week only!

Miller products, a new signature Tuaca Ginger cocktail, wine and soda will be available at the Westtown Beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food from Cousin's Subs, Tres Flores Funnel Cakes and Laura's Gourmet Popcorn.

The River Rhythms line-up is still jam packed with some great acts, including Bella Cain, U2 Zoo and Tweed Funk. Find the 2014 River Rhythms line-up online at www.westtown.org.
