Milwaukee-Based Charles Walker Band Performs at River Rhythms

MILWAUKEE, WI – River Rhythms, downtown’s destination for music on Wednesday evenings, welcomes the Charles Walker Band to the stage on Wednesday, July 26th. The free concert series takes place from 6:30-9 p.m. every Wednesday through August 30th in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third St. between State and Kilbourn.

Originally formed as a blues band 15 years ago, the Charles Walker Band has refined their sound into Neo-Funk, a style of music that features funk infused rhythms with pop melodies. This three-piece band has been featured on Fox News, NBC live and the Morning Blend, and has also opened for national acts like Earth, Wind and Fire, B.B. King and Richard Marx.

Miller products, wine, a Ciroc cocktail, and soda will be available at the Westtown beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food options from local food trucks and restaurants.

Next week, River Rhythms welcomes Saddlebrook to the stage! Find the rest of the 2017 River Rhythms line-up at: <https://www.westtown.org/neighborhood-events/river-rhythms-2/>
