Customer Appreciation Day Takes Place Tomorrow at the Westown Farmers' Market

Milwaukee – Tomorrow, Wednesday, July 31st, the Westown Farmers' Market will host Customer Appreciation Day. The market takes place from 10am to 3pm in Zeidler Union Square on Michigan between 3rd and 4th streets.

Market vendors will offer special deals and discounts on lunch items, prepared food, jewelry, art and produce. For a list of all vendor specials, please check the Westown Farmers' Market website or pick up a flier tomorrow at the Westown tent. Shoppers can also enjoy a folk and jazz performance by Peter Donalds from 11:45am until 1:45 pm in Zeidler Union Square's gazebo.

Market patrons that bike to the event can receive free bike tune-ups from the Vulture Space mobile bike cart. Vulture Space is a non-profit community bicycle workshop located in the Shops of Grand Avenue that provides tools and expertise to Milwaukee bicyclists and bike commuters looking to repair and maintain their bicycles.

Shoppers can enjoy a variety of art, produce, lunch and prepared food vendors every Wednesday 10am-3pm, thru October 30th at the Westown Farmers' Market. New vendors at this year's market include The Grist Mill, Bun Me, Fast Foodie, Bubble Tea Fusion and Alice's Garden, among many others. For a list of all vendors and special events at this year's market, please visit our website.
