Traditional Blues Artist, Reverend Raven, Performs at River Rhythms

MILWAUKEE – River Rhythms, downtown Milwaukee’s destination for music on Wednesday evenings, welcomes Reverend Raven & the Chain Smoking Altar Boys to the stage on Wednesday, June 28th. The free concert series takes place from 6:30 - 9 p.m. every Wednesday through August 30th (except July 5th) in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third Street between State and Kilbourn.

Reverend Raven & the Chain Smoking Altar Boys, winner of multiple Wisconsin Area Music Industry (WAMI) awards, specializes in traditional blues. The combination of smooth guitar and hot harmonica creates a truly authentic blues sound. Reverend Raven has been playing blues since he first saw Freddy King in 1971, and has opened for legendary blues artist B.B. King. Patrons can expect a performance filled with nothing but passion and skill from Reverend Raven.

Miller products, wine, a Ciroc cocktail, and soda will be available at the Westown beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food options from local food trucks and restaurants.

There will be no River Rhythms concert next week. Find the rest of the 2017 River Rhythms line-up at: <https://www.westown.org/neighborhood-events/river-rhythms-2/>
