Milwaukee based classic Irish group, Tallymoore, hits the River Rhythms stage, tomorrow August 6th!

Milwaukee, WI— River Rhythms, downtown's fastest growing music festival, continues this week with the modern Irish folk music of Tallymoore! The free concert series takes place from 6:30-9 p.m. every Wednesday until September 3rd in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third St. between State and Kilbourn.

Tallymoore's modern adaptations of classic Irish folk tunes have made them a favorite among music lovers and festival goers; with their strong vocal harmonies, youthful energy and spirit setting them apart from the traditional style. The collaboration features all four musicians as leading players with innovative new arrangements of Irish favorites, providing audiences with a fresh, upbeat and polished sound.

Miller products, Tuaca signature cocktail, wine and soda will be available at the Westtown Beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food from Streetza Pizza, Cousin's Subs, Eats & Treats Truck, Tres Flores Funnel Cakes and Laura's Gourmet Popcorn.

The River Rhythms line-up is still jam packed with some great acts, including Vic and Gab with Fever Fever, MadiSalsa and Altered Five. Just announced, there will be an additional concert added this season on Wednesday September 3rd featuring Sam Llanas (formerly of the BoDeans).
