Milwaukee's own, Tweed Funk, Bring their Boisterous Sound to River Rhythms Tomorrow

Milwaukee, WI— River Rhythms, downtown's fastest growing music festival, continues this week with soul-blues band Tweed Funk. The free concert series takes place from 6:30 to 9 p.m. every Wednesday in Pere Marquette Park on Old World Third St. between State and Kilbourn.

Formed in late 2010, Tweed Funk has garnered national and international acclaim for their horn-driven, sweat-soaked, soul-blues. This Milwaukee band is fronted by Joseph "Smokey" Holman, who recorded under Curtis Mayfield in the early 70's. Tweed Funk boasts 3 Wisconsin Area Music Industry (WAMI) Wins for the band and its members.

Miller products, a new signature Tuaca cocktail, wine and soda will be available at the Westtown Beverage tent with all proceeds going to benefit the free event. Patrons can also enjoy food from Eats & Treats Food Truck, Cousin's Subs, Velspresso, Tres Flores Funnel Cake and Laura's Gourmet Popcorn.

The River Rhythms line-up is still jam packed with some great acts, including Piano Brew and MadiSalsa. Just announced, there will be an additional concert added this season on Wednesday September 3rd featuring Sam Llanas (formerly of the BoDeans).
