WESTOWN
Farmers' Market

The Westown Farmers' Market Opens Tomorrow Downtown Milwaukee's Destination for Lunch on Wednesdays

MILWAUKEE—Downtown Milwaukee's oldest and largest open-air market, the Westown Farmers' Market, will return to Zeidler Union Square tomorrow, Wednesday, June 7. The Westown Association will welcome vendors, shoppers, and musicians back to the square, located at 301 W. Michigan Street, to celebrate the market's opening day.

The Westown Farmers' Market is open every Wednesday, June 7 – October 25 (except July 5) from 10a.m. to 2p.m. The market is host to 13 lunch vendors which include a variety of food trucks, local restaurants and food carts. Shoppers can also enjoy prepared food selections, handcrafted art & jewelry, and locally grown produce from over 50 onsite vendors during the peak of the season.

New vendors for this year's market include: Funky Fresh Spring Rolls (grilled nontraditional spring rolls); Press. Waffles (authentic Belgian Liège waffles); Meat on the Street (Filipino food truck); The Rolling Cones (bread cones with various meat and vegetarian fillings); Encanto/The Cozy Zone (handmade jewelry and art work); Chillwaukee (hand crafted ice pops); Kettle Range Meats (hormone & antibiotic free meat); Honeypie (ready to eat mini sweet and savory pies); C. Adams Bakery (made from scratch bakery items); and Whatever Comes Naturally (natural produce, soap and essential oils). For a list of all vendors expected at this year's market, please visit: <http://www.westown.org/neighborhood-events/westown-farmers-market/westown-farmers-market-vendors>.

The market also has a full schedule of music and events for patrons to enjoy. See the below schedule for the performance lineup.
